*‘See you
at the Millennium’*

WNY Education Law Conference 2018

Our WNY education community gathers for its annual Western New York Education Law Conference on Wednesday, Aug. 1st
at the Millennium Hotel in Cheektowaga.

This year, our conference “goes green,” with all presentations available online, rather than hard copies in packets as in years past.

Event Mobi will be your online source for all law conference materials ... you may download presentations to your device prior to the conference, or print out hard copies for note-taking in the sessions you plan to attend.

Conference evaluation also will be online this year.

Your access to Event Mobi will be sent to you one week prior to the conference.

‘Another great update.’

‘Worthwhile!’

‘Excellent, timely, thorough.’

‘Very informative and interesting.’

TIPS for attendees

Dress in layers, bring a sweater ... conference room temperatures can vary widely.

If you think you may have trouble hearing and do not see seating near the front, ask at our registration table outside the conference room for a chair to be brought to the front for you.

If it looks like there is not enough seating in a room, please remain patiently for a minute or two. Hotel staff are always alert to overflow seating needs and will bring in additional chairs momentarily.

REMINDER to attorneys:

* To receive CLE credits, you MUST sign in and out at the Law Conference registration table.

* There will be no follow up calls to those who have not signed in and out.
Attorneys must call the WNYESC office to receive their certificate.

* SUNY UB Law School reminds attorneys to complete the conference and session evaluation forms, as this is a mandatory quality assurance measure for the CLE credit program.

Recent Developments in Employee Benefits: What School Districts and BOCES Need to Know

Brian Liebenow, Erie 2 CC BOCES, and Jim Beyer, Harris Beach

The presenters will cover recent developments in the ever-changing employee benefits arena, as well as strategies to consider in addressing these changes with employees and collective bargaining units. The program includes discussion of employer obligations with respect to paid family leave, increases in the minimum wage, and avoiding unemployment claims by adequately providing reasonable assurances to substitutes.

What You Need to Know About Healthcare Benefit Issues Affecting Your School District ...

Mike Flanagan, Hodgson Russ, and Brian Hartmann, Erie 2 CC BOCES

Matters related to health care reverberate throughout school districts via channels as varied as federal reforms and taxpayer costs, to employee contracts and wellness. In this session we will discuss what you need to know about the current healthcare benefit issues facing, and sometimes vexing, school districts, including Affordable Care Act enforcement, wellness program changes, and bargaining considerations.

Employee Mental Health Needs & Schools ...

Lindsay Menasco, Erie 1 BOCES, and Brendan Kelleher, Harris Beach
Presenters will discuss balancing employer and employee interests as they pertain to accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), as well as Section 913 Examinations.

The Student Discipline Process ...

Dan D'Amico, Erie 1 BOCES, and Jeff Weiss, Harris Beach

Before disciplining students, school districts must follow numerous complex procedural rules and due process requirements, often within a short period of time. School personnel must abide by additional procedural requirements before disciplining students with disabilities. At this session we will review all applicable rules and provide tips to ensure that your school district is in full compliance with the student discipline process.

Community Use of School Facilities: Important Considerations...

Amanda Dermott, Erie 1 BOCES, and Keith Langlotz, Williamsville Central School District
School facilities are a valuable public resource, even outside of the regular school day. But, what are the implications, conditions and restrictions for community use of those facilities? Hear important considerations for school districts, with a special focus on district policies and procedures.

Employee Hiring, Evaluation & Discipline ...

Jeff Swiatek, Hodgson Russ, and Kinsey A. O'Brien, Hodgson Russ
Learn what you need to know about hiring and maintaining a solid workforce. We will discuss pitfalls to avoid during the hiring process and evaluation techniques to use that will allow you to effectively navigate the disciplinary standards established under collective bargaining agreements and state law.

From Tinker to Twitter - The Evolution of Free Speech Within School Districts ...

Melanie Beardsley, Hodgson Russ, and Marmie Smith, Harris Beach
Student/staff walk-outs, kneeling during the National Anthem, and social media have caused school districts and school attorneys to review and reevaluate the extent of First Amendment protections within a school district. This presentation examines various scenarios involving the balance between First Amendment protections, staff/student discipline, and school district responsibilities to maintain an orderly school environment.

Assessing School District Risks: Managing and Gauging Issues Related to Student Trips & Other Matters That Keep Us Up at Night...

Tracie Lopardi, Harris Beach, JoAnn Balazs, Ass't Superintendent, Sweet Home Schools
We all live in uncertain times within our own communities and beyond. Consider how your district implements trips for students, whether that process is in accordance with decisions of the Commissioner of Education and recommendations, and managing the many other risks that schools face each day.
